TOPIC ---

I am interested in MacTCP. Does Apple offer any type of site licensing agreements, or is it sold on a cost-per-individual user basis?

DISCUSSION --

MacTCP is available as a single-user and a site-licensed product. The single-use product is available with System 7.5, or if you do not have System 7.5, call 512-919-2645.

Customers interested in the site-licensed product need to contact Apple Computer Software Licensing. For more information, contact:
