A/UX: How to Avoid NFS Timeouts (8/94)

======================================================================

Article Created: 18 November 1991
Article Reviewed/Updated: 30 August 1994

TOPIC -------------------------------------------------------------

I'm getting lots of NFS timeout errors.  How do I avoid them?

DISCUSSION --------------------------------------------------------

Time a ping message to the server.  Then modify /etc/fstab by setting the timeo option to about the average time it takes for the ping message to return.
