PowerTalk: For France Version (4/94)

=====================================================================

Article Created: 20 April 1994

TOPIC -------------------------------------------------------------

What is the "For France" version of the PowerTalk & PowerShare software posted on AppleLink?

DISCUSSION --------------------------------------------------------

The French government does not allow encryption of data over a network, and the standard version of PowerTalk encrypts data. The "For France" version does not encrypt data.
