Dark Side of the Mac 4.2: Not Supported By Apple (6/95)

=====================================================================

Article Created: 13 June 1995

TOPIC -----------------------------------------------------------

I'm using the Dark Side of the Mac version 4.2 screen saver, is this a supported product.

DISCUSSION ------------------------------------------------------

Dark Side of the Mac is not produced or supported by Apple Computer. This product is, however, supported by the author, and you should contact the author for more information. The author provides contact information in the Read Me file that comes with Dark Side of the Mac 4.2.
